Re: Williamson v. Verizon Communications Inc., et al., Case No. 1:11-cv-04948-LTS-KNF

Dear Judge Swain:

I am writing on behalf of the Verizon Defendants regarding the re-scheduling of the Markman Hearing. As indicated in the parties' letters to you dated November 5, 2012, all of the parties (including Verizon) previously proposed November 27, December 6, and December 10 for the re-scheduled hearing and expressed a preference for December 6, 2012. In light of new information regarding the trial schedule of Verizon's lead counsel, Bill Lee, Verizon is writing to inform the Court that its preference is now December 10, 2012. (Mr. Lee is available on December 10 but not on November 27 or December 6.). Verizon has informed counsel for Plaintiff and AT&T about this change in its preference, and neither object to Verizon's notifying the Court of a change in preference date. To the extent the Court would prefer to hold the Markman Hearing on one of the other two proposed dates, Verizon will accommodate the Court's preference.

Respectfully submitted,

David B. Bassett
